

Another Successful Sunset Music Series!

Kristi Robich - Marketing & Events Coordinator

What's better than being surrounded by friends and family while lounging under the setting Texas sun? Doing all of that while enjoying a free concert! The fall edition of the Sunset Music Series has just wrapped, and it was bigger and better than ever! Thank you to everyone who came out to support the series and the food trucks that make this September event one of the best in Central Texas! Great music, an unforgettable atmosphere and the Hutto Sunset – does it get any better than that? We are so thankful to have the opportunity to have enjoyed it with all of you!

If you missed the September Series, don't worry! We will be back in the Spring! The Spring Series will kick off in April 2017 with more music, food and fun!

Here's what you can look forward to:

More than Music

The main attraction of the Sunset Music Series is of course...the music! However, did you know that each concert will feature a local food vendor? Most of these vendors reside or work in Hutto, and all of the food is amazing! Besides live music and food, you can look forward to meeting other residents of Hutto who love this great city as much as you do! If you haven't experienced the Sunset Music Series, this is a chance to immerse yourself in the culture of Hutto and to try different things. After all, you won't know unless you try!

While You're There

There are many different ways to prepare for the Sunset Music Series once you get settled onto the lawn behind the Gin at the Co-Op. Of course, there are no right or wrong ways to do it, but you could run your hands through the cool grass while your cheeks are kissed by the glittering setting Texas sun; look around slowly, take in the ambiance of an evening that promises lasting memories with loved ones. The feeling of community cohesion felt during these evenings under the stars is undeniable, so be sure to bring your family and friends every Friday in April and September!
